

Local Governance

GUIDE FOR AUTHORS

A biannual Journal published by the Commonwealth Local Government Forum
Editorship: Cardiff University, Co-editors and Publishers: UTS Centre for Local Government

The Commonwealth Journal of Local Governance (CJLG) is an open-access publication; the journal has increasing importance for academics and practitioners with an interest in local government in the developed and developing world. The journal is promoted widely to local government authorities and organisations, central government agencies, international development and civil society partners, universities, training and research institutes, and individual academics and practitioners. All papers may be reprinted for educational purposes without specific authorisation, but with appropriate citation.

The journal accepts three types of article: Research papers, Policy and practice notes and book reviews. Further details are provided below.

Content: CJLG promotes research and debate around the legitimacy, establishment, operation, representation and financing of local government and local and community services; papers may include case studies of any country. Papers with limited or no reference to local government are not usually appropriate for this journal. Papers should be correctly referenced, with citations that acknowledge sources in the text, and a reference list at the end. CJLG uses the Harvard system of referencing (see below). The Editor makes final decisions on the acceptance of papers.

Quality of English: Papers must be submitted with a good quality of English. Whilst the copy-editing and proofreading process will pick up minor language errors, the author has a responsibility to ensure the submitted paper is of a publishable quality. Any paper submitted whose English is not of a publishable quality will have their paper returned and be requested to resubmit after getting the paper professionally proof read.

Anti-plagiarism policy: The journal has a strict anti-plagiarism policy. All articles submitted to the journal and published on the journal website are checked with iThenticate software.

Submissions: Please read carefully the style guide below and edit your paper and ensure the English has been proofed prior to submission. Once edited and proofed, submissions are made by email to Editorial Assistant, Diane Bowden on journal@clgf.org.uk indicate in the submission whether the submission is intended as a Research paper, or a Policy and Practice note. The Editor will also advise authors on the most appropriate route to publication.

For further information - please see <http://epress.lib.uts.edu.au/journals/index.php/cjlg/about>

1. Topics

Editorial priorities for the journal include papers addressing two key agendas:

- Improving decentralisation and local governance
- Local government as an agent of development

Contributors may address these themes through a wide range of topics, including for example:

- Concepts of local democracy, citizenship and community participation/empowerment
- Strategic leadership and planning
- Improving local governance (systems, efficiency, effectiveness, ethics, etc.)
- Decentralisation and re-centralisation
- Local government finance
- Local government capacity building
- Women in local government
- Traditional leadership and local government
- Global issues & local government: (eg climate change, economic transformation, urbanisation etc.)
- Social inclusion (including gender equity and poverty alleviation)
- Performance measurement and management
- Inter-government relations
- Local government service delivery

2. Types of Papers

CJLG accepts peer-reviewed Research & Evaluation papers and non-reviewed Policy & Practice and Book Reviews.

RESEARCH – Research papers should add new knowledge to local government debates, and may include:

- Formal research papers
- Analytical case studies of practice, innovation etc.
- Discursive literature reviews

Papers should normally set out:

- a) the OBJECTIVES of the paper,
- b) a clear statement of METHODS,
- c) a LITERATURE REVIEW establishing the theoretical framework for the discussion,
- d) original research FINDINGS, and
- e) the DISCUSSION and CONCLUSION.

Research papers should be around 7,000 words long, including references. Papers are submitted to two independent reviewers for blind review. The review process normally takes around six months depending on the reviewers' response.

POLICY & PRACTICE – Policy & Practice notes may either:

- a) report interesting initiatives by, or in partnership with, local governments usually around themes of strengthening representation, improving service delivery etc., or
  - b) may include opinion pieces based on secondary sources or practice experience.
- Policy & Practice Notes should include a statement of METHODS. Policy & Practice Notes are reviewed by the editorial team, and should be up to 3,500 words long, including references. Occasionally papers not suitable for peer review may be included as a Policy & Practice Note.

BOOK REVIEWS – a short one/two page commentary on a recent relevant book

3. House Style

Please submit papers formatted in the House Style below.

Document format: Text submitted as WORD file (not pdf format).

Illustrations: Please present your illustrations clearly and in publishable form (see examples from Issues 13/14 below). Complicated illustrations should be in JPEG format. All illustrations and photos require short captions.

Abstract: 150-200 words, Times New Roman, 11pt, italic, single spaced

Body text: Times New Roman, 11pt, line spacing 1.5

Paragraph spacing: 0pt above, 10pt below (not full line spacing)

Subheadings: One or two levels only
Level 1: Arial 12pt Bold,
Level 2: Arial 11pt Bold, italics, without capitals

Tables: Arial 9pt, single line spacing. Both tables and figures must be mentioned explicitly and in numerical order in the body text.

Spelling: British-English – e.g.: ‘isation’ not ‘ization’.

SPELLING EXAMPLES

acknowledgement	dialogue	onto, on to ageing, aging	grey	organisation
alright, all right	fulfil	practice (n.), practise (v.)
analyse	instalment	programme
cancelled	judgement, judgment	computer program
catalogue	kerb	routeing, routing
centre	labour	sceptic
cooperation	licence (n.), license (v.)	theatre
councillor	manoeuvre	travelling

Grammar: Please make sure that spellings and grammar are correct in your submission, and use the spellcheck in WORD. The editorial team CANNOT ACCEPT submissions where major language corrections are required.

Capitals: Lower case is used when the name is not specified e.g.: “the council” or “local governments”, but upper case is required when referring to a specific organisation, e.g.: “Wamachonga Council”. Please be consistent!

Non-English words: Non-English words should be in italics the first time they are used with a translation in brackets, e.g.: panchayat. Thereafter they should be in normal text.

Acronyms: Acronyms should be spelt out in the body text the first time they are used, e.g.: DWASA (Dhaka Water and Sanitation Authority).

Numbers: Numbers from one to ten should be spelled out in body text unless they are paired with a mathematical symbol (e.g. 2 + 2) or abbreviation (6 km). Decimals appearing in tables and text should have leading zeros (e.g. 0.7). Use % not 'per cent' with numbers. Usually numbers used in text would be up to one decimal place.

Quoted text All direct quotes from secondary sources should be in italics, with appropriate referencing including page number/s.

If the quotation is short, enclose the text in double quote marks and integrate with body text.

Longer quotations of three lines and over should be separated from the body text and placed as a block quote indented 1 cm either side in italics in single line spacing. Block quotes should not be enclosed within double quote marks. All interview excerpts of more than one sentence should be displayed as a block quote. If material is quoted within a quote, single quote marks should be used for the embedded quote.

5. Referencing

Sources should be correctly referenced using the Harvard system of referencing. All sources cited in the text must be listed in the reference list and vice versa.

Citing your sources in text

One author – include surname of author and date. If you are citing different publications written by the same author in the same year, label the first one cited with 'a' after the year and the second 'b' e.g. (Brown 2006a, 2006b). This labelling should also be used in the reference list.

Two authors – include both surnames and date e.g. (Cullingworth and Nadin 2007) or Cullingworth and Nadin (2007).

Three authors and over – use first author's surname and et al. followed by date e.g. Taylor et al. (2010) or (Taylor et al. 2010). All author names must be included in reference list

Reference list

Authors must be listed in alphabetical order, by surname followed by initial/s. All titles of sources or names of organisations written in a language other than English should be translated into English in brackets following each entry in its original language. All available DOIs (Digital Object Identifiers) should be provided for each source.

Books:

- The author's or editor's surname and initial (or names)
- The year the book was published (in brackets)
- The title (in italics) and edition of book
- The city the book was published in
- The name of the publisher

(example) Brown, A. \(ed\) \(2006\) *Contested space: Street trading, public space and livelihoods in developing cities*. Rugby: ITDG Publishing.

For a chapter in a book

- The surname and initial of author of chapter
- The year the book was published (in brackets)
- The title of chapter
- The surname and initial of editor/s
- The title (in italics) and edition of book
- The city the book was published in
- The name of the publisher
- Page numbers of chapter

(example) Amis, P. \(2004\) Regulating the informal sector: Voice and bad governance. In: Devas, N. with Amis, P., Beall, J., Grant, U., Mitlin, D., Nunan, F. and Rakodi, C. \(2004\) *Urban governance, voice and poverty in the developing world*. London: Earthscan, pp. 145–163.

For journal articles (see example):

- The author's or editor's surname and initial (or names)
- The year in which the journal was published
- The title of the article (lower case)
- The title of the journal (in italics)
- Journal Volume and Issue number
- The page number/s of the article in the journal

Brown, A. \(2012\) The right to the city: road to Rio 2010. *International Journal of Urban & Regional Research*, 37 \(3\): 957–971.

For webpages or on-line reports (see example):

- The author's or organisation's name
- The date of posting (if available) (otherwise n.d. = no date)
- The title of the webpage (lower case)
- The url
- The date accessed

[Brown, A. and Kristiansen, A. \(2008\) Urban policies and the right to the city: rights, responsibilities and citizenship. Paris: UNESCO, UN-Habitat. Available at: <http://unesdoc.unesco.org/images/0017/001780/178090e.pdf> \[Accessed 26 January 2013\].](#)

Please do not include weblinks in the body of the text.

Please be careful that you are familiar with current practice on citation and avoiding plagiarism.

Plagiarism includes the use or ideas or direct quotation of material from another source without adequate acknowledgement.

The following websites are useful guides to correct citation and avoiding plagiarism:

- Citation - <http://www.cf.ac.uk/insrv/educationandtraining/guides/citingreferences/index.html>
- Avoiding Plagiarism - <https://ilrb.cf.ac.uk/plagiarism/tutorial/index.html>

6. Examples of CJLG tables and illustrations

Table 1 Potential roles for Local Government within the new Framework

	Goal	Comment	Local Government Role
1	End Poverty	Replaces and reworks MDG. Still the main overarching objective as in the original formulation.	All four targets are to be disaggregated. LG as argued has major role in reducing poverty
2	Empower Girls and Women and Achieve Gender Equality	Replaces and reworks MDG 3. Wider Gender objective than earlier	All four targets are to be disaggregated. LG again involved often with local administration and regulations and with work on violence.
3	Provide Quality and Education and Lifelong learning	Replaces and reworks MDG 2. This now goes beyond primary education to include a quality measure rather than a quantity.	All four targets are to be disaggregated. LG important via its involvement in the education sector
4	Ensure Healthy Lives	Replaces and reworks MDG 4, 5 and 6. The merging of three goals into a single goal suggests how dominant the health agenda was in the original formulation	All five targets are to be disaggregated. LG important via its involvement in the health sector and through public health actions.
5	Ensure Food Security and Good Nutrition	New Goal concerned with food security and nutrition indicators.	Two out of five targets are to be disaggregated. Indirect role for LG
6	Achieve Universal Access to Water and Sanitation	Welcome new goal on water and Sanitation. Evidence suggests that it is appropriate alongside a poverty approach as in quite a few cases they are not congruent.	Two out of four targets are to be disaggregated. The provision of water and sanitation facilities is a classic and very important LG function.
7	Secure Sustainable Energy	Very important new goal that to a large extent talks to the Climate change agenda	Two out of four targets are to be disaggregated. LG important in implementing the regulations in terms of energy efficiency
8	Create Jobs, Sustainable Livelihoods, and Equitable Growth	Major, problematic and ambitious goal that talks to the economic growth and employment agendas.	All four targets are to be disaggregated. LG can be important in facilitating economic growth – issue of also not limiting employment in the informal sector
9	Manage Natural Resource Assets Sustainably	Replaces and reworks MDG 7. Seeks to address the more general environmental concerns on sustainability and biodiversity	None of the five targets are to be disaggregated. Generally a national policy but LG often important in implementation.
10	Ensure Good Governance and Effective Institutions	New goal that talks to governance and implicitly democracy and human rights. Likely to be most controversial and contentious	Two out of five targets are to be disaggregated. LG important but may be subsumed under national concerns.
11	Ensure Stable and Peaceful Societies	New goal that implicitly is addressing the issues of conflict, diversity and fragile states.	Two out of four targets are to be disaggregated. LG can be important in supporting peace and stability
12	Create a Global Enabling Environment and Catalyse Long-term Finance	Replaces and reworks MDG 8. Seen as important in building a new partnership and an attempt to widen the original formulation to include, trade, finance and commitments to climate change.	None of the six targets are to be disaggregated

Source: Amis (2013, p.10)

Figure 1: Uganda's five-tier local government administrative system

The journal is published under the auspices of the Commonwealth Local Government Forum. It is co-edited by the School of Planning & Geography, Cardiff University (UK) and the Centre for Local Government, UTS (University of Technology, Sydney) and published by the UTS Centre for Local Government. The editor is Professor Alison Brown, and Co-Editor Associate Professor Roberta Ryan, Assistant Editor, Su Fei Tan, Book Review Editor Gareth Wall, and Editorial Assistant Diane Bowden. CJLG has two issues a year, normally in May and December.